RI TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2017

Sustainable Insight Capital Management

About this report

The PRI Reporting Framework is a key step in the journey towards building a common language and industry standard for reporting responsible investment (RI) activities. This RI Transparency Report is one of the key outputs of this Framework. Its primary objective is to enable signatory transparency on RI activities and facilitate dialogue between investors and their clients, beneficiaries and other stakeholders. A copy of this report will be publicly disclosed for all reporting signatories on the PRI website, ensuring accountability of the PRI Initiative and its signatories.

This report is an export of the individual Signatory organisation's response to the PRI during the 2017 reporting cycle. It includes their responses to mandatory indicators, as well as responses to voluntary indicators the signatory has agreed to make public. The information is presented exactly as it was reported. Where an indicator offers a response option that is multiple-choice, all options that were available to the signatory to select are presented in this report. Presenting the information exactly as reported is a result of signatory feedback which suggested the PRI not summarise the information. As a result, the reports can be extensive. However, to help easily locate information, there is a Principles index which highlights where the information can be found and summarises the indicators that signatories complete and disclose.

Understanding the Principles Index

The Principles Index summarises the response status for the individual indicators and modules and shows how these relate to the six Principles for Responsible Investment. It can be used by stakeholders as an 'at-a-glance' summary of reported information and to identify particular themes or areas of interest.

Indicators can refer to one or more Principles. Some indicators are not specific to any Principle. These are highlighted in the 'General' column. When multiple Principles are covered across numerous indicators, in order to avoid repetition, only the main Principle covered is highlighted.

All indicators within a module are presented below. The status of indicators is shown with the following symbols:

Symbol	Status
✓	The signatory has completed all mandatory parts of this indicator
☑	The signatory has completed some parts of this indicator
🔒	This indicator was not relevant for this signatory
-	The signatory did not complete any part of this indicator
Ⓜ	The signatory has flagged this indicator for internal review

Within the table, indicators marked in blue are mandatory to complete. Indicators marked in grey are voluntary to complete.

OO 11.3 Additional information. [Optional]

We proactively incorporate ESG into our security selection process (asset class: equities). We examine each security's alpha forecast for the possibility of an ESG adjustment. This adjustment can be up (leading to an increase in the forecasted return), or down (a lowering of the forecasted return). This process allows us to directly integrate ESG signals into the forecasted alpha of each stock.

Yes

SG 17.2	Describe any specific features of your approach to responsible investment that you believe are particularly innovative.

Our approach to responsible investment reflects that ESG factors are becoming increasingly material to asset valuations. We proactively incorporate ESG into our security selection process prior to portfolio construction. ESG research is gathered from a variety of vendors and we analyze the forecasting power of each disaggregated factor of the E, S, and G scores separately. Given methodologies, coverage and materiality vary greatly from vendor to vendor, each individual data set is analyzed to determine, in a statistically robust way, if these factors demonstrate any evidence of affecting residual stock returns. Upon determining the pricing history of a factor, we are then able to create our own proprietary blend of ESG signals, which offer the highest and best probability of that particular ESG factor contributing to portfolio returns.

We strive to deliver the highest probability of sustainable and consistent alpha while incorporating ESG factors. SICM was established with the aim of benefiting from the rapidly increasing acceptance of sustainable investing from a largely niche strategy into the financial mainstream. By combining a unique and highly differentiated security selection process with proprietary ESG (environmental, social, governance) research SICM seeks to deliver positive active returns while minimizing unintended active risks.

LEI 03.2 Describe your organisation’s approach to incorporation and the reasons for choosing the particular ESG incorporation strategy/strategies.

Our investment process integrates ESG risks directly into the security selection and portfolio construction process. We operate from the premise that Sustainability is a major global trend and that it does manifest itself in capital markets through security pricing mechanisms. We use ESG performance measures of companies to detect how these trends are affecting companies and in turn how companies are responding. Not all sustainability initiatives, however are repriced in capital markets and then therefore we attempt to uncover what we believe to be financially material ESG risks related to portfolio holdings. The way we execute our philosophy is by proactively incorporating ESG into our security selection process prior to portfolio construction. We gather ESG research from a variety of ESG research firms and analyze the forecastability of each disaggregated piece of the E, S, and G scores separately. Given that methodologies, coverage and materiality vary greatly from firm to firm, much like that of fundamental equity research firms. We analyze each piece of data to determine, in a statistically significant manner, if these factors show any evidence of being priced. Once we determine the pricing history of a factor, we are then able to create our own proprietary blend of ESG data to give the best probability of the ESG factor contributing to our risk management process. We integrate an SICM ESG score into the portfolio construction process by adjusting expected returns based on ESG risk. These adjusted expected returns (or alphas) are then entered into the portfolio optimization process. Thus the ESG risk factors have now become a true risk factor in the portfolio construction process, rather than a negative screen or filter. For example, if a company has a poor environmental record, the forecasted alpha may be adjusted down (i.e. the alpha forecast is lowered) due to the increased estimated environmental risk of investing in this company.

Where assets are managed using a combination of ESG incorporation strategies, briefly describe how these combinations are used. [Optional]

Our long-only commingled portfolios are run on an ex-fossil fuel basis. All exclude the MSCI Energy Sector. We also examine all stocks in the relevant universes (e.g. the S&P500 for the US Fund) for their ESG characteristics and the forecasted returns are adjusted where necessary to reflect these characteristics. Several of our other long-only strategies exclude sectors such as tobacco, gaming, mining, defense and alcohol, tailored to our clients' request. In one of our portfolios, we run the strategy according to low carbon criteria.

Provide a brief description of the ESG information used, highlighting any differences of sources of information across your ESG incorporation strategies.

SICM relies on third party research from the following data sources: MSCI, Sustainalytics, GMI, RepRisk, Bloomberg, Thompson Reuters and CDP. However, we use more than just the high-level ESG scores for each security. We also use the individual 'pillar' scores (E, S & G) for both a company and sector basis. We have also used the data to create E, S, & G factor scores over time.

- Corporate governance

Description

We exclude the GICS Energy sector for several of our long-only strategies. In several of our other long-only strategies we exclude sectors such as tobacco, gaming, mining, defense and alcohol, tailored to our clients' request. In one of our portfolios, we run the strategy according to low carbon criteria.

- Positive/best-in-class screening
- Norms-based screening

LEI 06.2	Describe how the screening criteria are established, how often the criteria are reviewed and how you notify clients and/or beneficiaries when changes are made.

As mentioned above, In our US, International and Global strategies, we exclude the GICS Energy sector. In several of our other long-only strategies we exclude sectors such as tobacco, gaming, mining, defense and alcohol, tailored to our clients' request. In one of our portfolios, we run the strategy according to low carbon criteria.

On a quarterly basis the portfolio managers and other key investment professionals attend an investment committee meeting and a risk committee meeting to evaluate the execution of the strategies' investment guidelines, which includes the strategy's adherence to the GICS Energy screening criteria. These meetings include the Managing Partner, to whom the Portfolio Managers report. Any proposed changes to the investment process will be communicated to the client for pre-approval.
